(1960 - 2020)

The Core Group for Tibetan Cause - India deeply mourn the demise of Shri Dadu Mandrekar, an ardent Tibet supporter who was a renowned poet, author, journalist, photographer, researcher, humanist and social activist from Goa. Dadu had always stood up for the cause of Tibet and supported the Tibetan freedom struggle. He had written a number of books including on Tibet especially in Marathi language. Dadu's knowledge and wisdom was far and wide from delivering lectures on topics of social inequalities to history, Ambedkar and Buddhism.

Dadu Mandrekar had participated and carried out many campaigns on Tibet. He had participated at the Fourth All India Tibet Support Groups Conference held at Dharamshala in 2012. Many Tibet related programs were held in Goa because of him. He had organized photo campaigns on Tibet in Goa on many occasions. Likewise he was always active for the Tibetan cause. His death is a great loss to the Tibetan Freedom Movement.

We, the Core Group for Tibetan Cause - India pay our deepest tribute to the departed soul and at the same time pray for his swift rebirth. Our prayers and thoughts are with his family members. He will always be remembered for his contribution to Tibbat Mukti Sadhana.
